WIELAND

natural quality

The Monroe collection gives a softer, less institutional feel to any space. Monroe seating features a stylish, yet functional wood frame fastened to a welded substructure to create additional strength and durability. The Monroe collection is available with one, two, or three seats, bariatric width and high back options. Finish the seating with an extensive selection of fabrics and wood stains, and pair with freestanding or modular tables.

highlights

- metal-to-metal seat connection for added durability
- tandem seating offered in several configurations
- patient and flex back movement chairs available
- flex back movement reduces stress
- variety of freestanding or modular tables
- urethane arm caps available
- coordinating ottoman available

patient solutions

Find the design solution for your patient and waiting room with Monroe's broad range of seating choices. These choices include high back and bariatric chairs, as well as flex back models in two different back heights.
